- 2.1. The Bolt Food Platform enables the Client to order Goods from Partners and arrange the delivery of the Orders to the Client.
- 2.2. For the delivery of the Order, the Client enters into a Delivery Agreement directly with the Delivery Partner. The Delivery Partner authorises Bolt, as a taxable person acting in his own name but on behalf of the Delivery Partner, to take part in the supply of services, by receiving Invoices in its own name from the Delivery Partner and issuing Invoices in its own name to the Client for delivery services supplied under the Delivery Agreement and to directly collect payment from the Client for the Invoices thus issued under the Delivery Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt the Delivery Partner supplies the delivery of the Orders directly to the Client.
- 2.3. The Delivery Agreement is deemed to be concluded from the moment that the Delivery Partner has accepted the Request through the Bolt Food Platform. The Request is sent to a Delivery Partner who would deliver the Order to the Client the fastest. The Delivery Partner is free to accept, reject or ignore the Request. The Delivery Agreement is concluded through an offer and acceptance model based on the Client's Order under the local laws.

- 2.4. By operating the Bolt Food Platform, Bolt acts only as a provider of the information society service and is not a party to the Delivery Agreement, being involved in invoicing the services in its own name, but on the account of the Delivery Partner. The Delivery Partner is not employed by Bolt and does not act as Bolt's subcontractor, but provides the delivery service to the Client as an independent contractor. The Delivery Partner may appoint an authorised person to provide the delivery service on behalf of and in the name of the Delivery Partner. Bolt is not in any way involved and does not have any control of the agreement between the Delivery Partner and its authorised persons. Each such authorised person will have an account to use the Bolt Food Platform. These accounts are owned and managed by the Delivery Partner via a fleets' portal. The Delivery Partner acknowledges that in this case the payment obligation of the Client or Bolt Business Customer arising from the Delivery Agreement is deemed to be fulfilled when the respective payment is credited to the payment account of Bolt.
- 2.7. The Delivery Partners are free to provide delivery services on other platforms, including Bolt's competitors. The Delivery Partners are under no exclusivity and/or non-compete obligation towards Bolt.
- 2.8. The Delivery Partners are free to have their own client base (if applicable). The Delivery Partners can block a specific Client and/or Partner if the Delivery Partner no longer wishes to deliver to/from a specific Client and/or Partner.

4.4. The Delivery Partner may provide the delivery service during all times that it has signed in the Bolt Food Platform. The Delivery Partner may choose the time and duration of providing the delivery service on the Bolt Food Platform at its own discretion. 4.5. The Delivery Partner may not engage in any actions that may disparage Bolt, or cause harm to Bolt's brand, reputation or business, including making unjustified negative statements, engaging in activities that could damage Bolt's goodwill or any behaviour that might negatively impact the perception of Bolt in the eyes of the public or business partners.

4.6. All fees earned for the deliveries made by the Delivery Partner's authorised persons will be credited into the bank account of the Delivery Partner, who will then be free to distribute the fees as agreed separately with the authorised person(s). Bolt does not participate in the decision making process in respect of the payments made by the Delivery Partner to its authorised person.

4.7. Bolt is entitled to change, modify or discontinue either temporarily or permanently the provision of the information society service through the Bolt Food Platform at any given time and the Delivery Partner shall not be entitled to compensation of any kind.

content under the Digital Services Act. Nevertheless, Bolt is entitled to remove any allegedly illegal content after the receipt of a notice and/or order regarding the existence of such content on the Bolt Food Platform. Furthermore, Bolt is entitled to remove such content if detected through Bolt's own content moderation. Should the Delivery Partner disagree with Bolt's decision on removal of the content, the Delivery Partner is solely responsible for proving that the content is not illegal or incompatible with these General Terms within Bolt's internal complaint-handling procedure in Section 14.2.

4.9. If any of the information the Delivery Partner provides to Bolt is deemed to be illegal content under applicable laws or otherwise contravenes these General Terms, Bolt reserves the right to:

4.10. Bolt is entitled to suspend, for a reasonable period of time and after having issued a prior warning, the processing of notices and complaints submitted through the internal complaint-handling system by the Delivery Partners that frequently submit notices or complaints which are manifestly unfounded. While assessing the circumstances for the suspension, Bolt considers the following:

- 4.10.1. the absolute numbers of items of manifestly illegal content or manifestly unfounded notices or complaints, submitted within a month; and
- 4.10.2. the relative proportion of notices and complaints in relation to the total number of items of information provided or notices submitted within a month; and

- 4.11.2. the nature of the illegal content; and
- 4.11.3. (if applicable) the intention of the Delivery Partner while providing such information.

5. PICKUP OF ORDER

- 5.1. The Delivery Partner has to pick up the accepted Order at the time and location indicated on the Bolt Food Platform. The Delivery Partner shall make sure that the right Order is picked up (if necessary, confirming it with the Partner). An accepted Order may be cancelled by the Delivery Partner before the Order has been picked up by the Delivery Partner, unless the cancellation breaches any obligations in Section 4.3. In such cases the Delivery Partner is not entitled to the fees under Section 7.
- 5.2. In case the Goods contain food, the Delivery Partner has to place the food, which is previously packaged by the Partner, into a thermo-bag without adding or removing any packaging, in order to guarantee that the Goods are delivered in a safe condition, as to ensure health and food safety. The Delivery Partner shall make certain before each delivery of food that the thermo-bag is clean and in good order and is used in a manner that ensures food and health safety and prevents the contamination of food.

6. DELIVERY OF ORDER

- 6.1. The Delivery Partner may choose the route of delivery at its own discretion, provided that the Order is delivered to the address indicated on the Bolt Food Platform as soon as reasonably possible, taking into account the traffic and weather conditions. The Bolt Food Platform calculates a suggested route and an estimated delivery time for the delivery of the Order, which are not binding to the Delivery Partner. The Delivery Partners are free to choose the GPS system (whether the GPS shown on the Bolt Food Platform or any other GPS) or not to use any GPS system at all at their own discretion.
- 6.2. In accordance with the Delivery Agreement concluded with the Client, the Delivery Partner has to hand over the Order to the Client at the Drop-Off Location. If the Client fails to take possession of the Order, the Delivery Partner has to contact the Client on the phone number indicated on the Bolt Food Platform on at least 3 separate occasions and stay with the Order at the Drop-Off Location during a 5 minute time frame. If the Client is still unavailable and unable to take possession of the Order, the Delivery Partner will contact Bolt's customer service in order to authorise Bolt to cancel the Order and fully charge the Client for the Order as well as to receive further advice regarding the Order.
- 6.3. In case the Order contains alcohol, tobacco, energy drinks or any other products requiring age verification under the applicable law, it is the Delivery Partner's obligation to verify that the Client is old enough to legally purchase the products by checking a valid photo identification of the Client before handing over the products (if applicable). - 7.4. Bolt, the Client and/or the Partner may cancel the Order. If an Order is cancelled due to Delivery Partner's failure to fulfil its obligations under the Delivery Agreement, the Delivery Partner is not entitled to the fees under Section 7. Furthermore, cancellation does not limit Delivery Partner's liability under Section 13.6.

8. PAYMENTS AND INVOICING

- 8.1. Bolt, acting in its own name but on behalf of the Delivery Partner, shall prepare and issue the Invoice(s) for the Fees in its own name but on behalf of the Delivery Partner and shall directly collect payment from the Client or the Bolt Business Customer for the Invoice(s) thus issued under the Delivery Agreement. Bolt will issue these Invoices within the statutory deadlines.
- 8.3. The Delivery Partner is obliged to verify the Invoice data and notify Bolt immediately of any discrepancies within 30 calendar days. - 8.5. The self-billing arrangement described in this Section shall apply as long as the General Terms remain in force (as amended from time to time) and are binding to Bolt and the Delivery Partner.

- 8.6. The issuance of Invoices by Bolt on behalf of the Delivery Partner under this self-billing arrangement is a purely administrative act and does not constitute, and shall not be construed as, Bolt assuming or guaranteeing any VAT liability of the Delivery Partner. The Delivery Partner remains solely liable for its own VAT obligations arising from the supplies covered by such Invoices, including the obligation to declare and remit any VAT due to the competent tax authority.
- 8.7. Bolt undertakes to pay the Fees to the Delivery Partner's bank account that was provided to Bolt by the Delivery Partner, except for cash payments. No payments shall be made if the amount payable to Delivery Partners for the reference period falls below the minimum payment threshold established by Bolt or in case the Balance is negative after the reference period.
- 8.8. Invoicing and payments between Bolt and the Delivery Partner will be made after each reference period, typically once every week (or any other reference period communicated by Bolt in advance). Bolt may decide to offer payments at intervals other than the standard reference period subject to limits and conditions prescribed by Bolt.
- 8.9. Bolt may enable the Clients to pay in cash to the Delivery Partner. In case the Client pays in cash to the Delivery Partner, it shall be reflected on the Balance.
- 8.10. In accordance with Section 2.6, in case of a payment by the Client or Bolt Business Customer, the payment obligation of the Client or Bolt Business Customer arising from the Delivery Agreement is deemed to be fulfilled when the respective payment is credited to the payment account of Bolt, except for cash payments. In case of a cash payment by the Client, the Delivery Partner has to insert the sum of cash received from the Client to the Bolt Food Platform. In such a case, the Balance decreases by an amount equivalent to the sum of cash received from the Client. In such a case, the payment obligation of the Client relating to the Order is deemed to be fulfilled when and to the extent the respective cash payment is made to the Delivery Partner.
- 8.11. The Bolt Food Platform may request the Delivery Partner to pay the Goods Price to the Partner in cash from the Balance upon pick up of the Order. In such a case, the Balance increases by an amount equivalent to the sum of cash paid to the Partner.
- 8.12. Any outstanding principal amount due to Bolt (i.e. negative Balance) should be paid by the Delivery Partner to Bolt upon receipt of respective notification from Bolt.
- 8.13. In case the Delivery Partner fails to make the payment under Section 8.8, it shall be liable to pay 0,5% interest per day from the total amount that is overdue. The Delivery Partner is liable to compensate Bolt all reasonable expenses (including those charged by any debt collection agency) together with all administrative, legal and other costs incurred in the collection of any overdue payment. The minimum compensation charge for such costs is EUR 10 (or equivalent in local currency).
- 8.14. Bolt has the right to forward and publish the personal data of the Delivery Partner (if applicable) and the fact, sum and other relevant information of debts of the Delivery Partner under these General Terms to debt collection agencies and other debt management service providers, for the recovery of debts and/or for the publication, processing and management of data in the debtors' database, as well as for the publication of debt data for the purposes of making credit decisions.

- 9.3. In addition, Bolt has the right to terminate these General Terms in entirety or in respect of a specific service and remove the Delivery Partner's access or any access in association with the Delivery Partner's account to all or part of the Bolt Food Platform with immediate effect, if:

- 9.6. The termination of the General Terms will not affect:
 - 9.6.1. any accrued rights of either party, including any right to receive any payments due but unpaid before the termination; or
 - 9.6.2. obligations, which are expressed to survive the termination.
- 9.7. Upon termination of these General Terms in entirety, the Delivery Partner and, where relevant, its authorised persons accessing the Bolt Food Platform in association with the Delivery Partner's account, shall no longer have the right to access the Bolt Food Platform. Upon termination of these General Terms in respect of a specific service, the Delivery Partner and, where relevant, its authorised persons accessing the Bolt Food

- 9.9. If the General Terms are terminated between the parties, the Delivery Partner undertakes to return to Bolt the thermo-bag provided by Bolt within 3 business days from the date of termination (if applicable). If the thermo-bag is not returned duly or not in good order, Bolt has the right to keep the deposit charged from the Delivery Partner for the thermo-bag. In such a case, the Delivery Partner agrees and acknowledges that the deposit serves as the purchase price for the thermo-bag.
- 9.10. In the interest of maintaining a consistent and secure user experience across multiple Bolt's platforms, if the Delivery Partner and/or any authorised person providing the delivery service on the Delivery Partner's behalf is temporarily suspended on the Bolt Food Platform or the General Terms are terminated, Bolt has the right to temporarily suspend or terminate the Delivery Partner and/or the respective authorised person also on other Bolt's platforms (e.g. ride-hailing platform). In the aforementioned cases Bolt may, in its own discretion, also prohibit the Delivery Partner and/or the authorised person from registering a new account on other Bolt's platforms.
