

By subscribing to a Bolt Offer, you agree to the following additional terms and conditions. Capitalized terms have the meaning ascribed to them in the General Terms for Providers. Please note that these specific terms apply to goods and/or services provided by third party providers/suppliers who offer, via the Bolt App or Bolt Platform, promotional campaigns for the provision of various goods and/or services to Drivers (hereinafter referred to as a “Third Party Provider”).

By choosing goods/services provided by a Third Party Provider, you may be forwarded to this Third Party Provider webpage and be subject to this Third Party Provider's terms and conditions and privacy policy.

You are contracting directly with that specific Third Party Provider, Bolt being a third party to the contractual relationship. The Third Party Provider is responsible for any obligations that may arise from the provision of its goods and/or services. Bolt is not liable for any damage or loss arising from any transaction between you and a Third Party Provider. Bolt makes no warranty as to the availability or accuracy of the content, products or services of the Third Party Provider. The Bolt App and/or Bolt Platform are merely used as a marketing channel which informs you of the goods/services provided by a Third Party Provider, or benefits and discounts related to such goods/services.

Please note that your personal data may be shared with the Third Party Providers in order to enable you to use the products or benefit from the services they make available via the Bolt App or the Bolt Platform.

For the avoidance of doubt, Bolt does not provide itself nor does it act as an intermediary provider of such goods/services provided by the Third Party Providers. All Third Party Providers are independent third party contractors, registered businesses or other legal entities who are in any event not employed by Bolt or acting on its behalf.
